Feminist/Queer/Raced Agitations for Social Justice: Reflections on Surviving Emotional Labor and Resistant Praxis in the Academy
Facilitated by: Rachel Alicia Griffin, University of Utah
This workshop explores the intersections of emotional labor and resistant praxis in the professional work, intellectual labor, and agitations for social justice of queer/women of color scholars. Participants can expect to: hear presenters reflect on how emotional labor and resistant praxis shapes and shades our work, creatively reflect on their own emotional labor and resistant praxis, and partake in generative dialogue about how to navigate/endure/survive politicized—and oftentimes invisible—labor in the academy.
Participants: Isra Ali, Karrin Vasby Anderson, Sabrina Fuller, Rachel Griffin, Katie Klein, David Lee, Tiffany Lewis, Hana Masri, Ersula J. Ore, Cassidy Rentmeester, Sara VanderHaagen, and Carly S. Woods
- 1:00 to 3:15-Johnston Hall 310 Workshop 2
Publishing Scholarship: Contributing to Conversations and Targeting Outlets
Facilitated by: Joan Faber McAlister, Drake University
This session offers resources, advice, and tailored assistance to scholars moving projects toward publication in academic journals. An experienced editor will provide the tips and tricks needed to navigate the submission, revision, and proofing process. Participants will then work together to apply those tips to help each author in the workshop create a solid plan for advancing a particular paper all the way to print. Personal experiences with writer’s block, rejection, bias, and censorship will also be discussed as we offer each other both support and practical tools for publishing our work.
